

|| HELLO!

First and foremost – thank you for placing your trust with us! We take great pride in the clients we serve and will do everything we can to exceed your expectations. We sincerely believe in the value of relationships. We view every client relationship like a partnership, and genuinely believe our success only comes with your success. We are proud to serve as consultants to small businesses, entrepreneurs, nonprofit organizations, and individuals that value personalized, proactive service - and we are committed to being available year-round as a sounding board for any situations that may arise.

As we work diligently preparing to meet the demands of a growing client base, we ask that you review our Privacy Policy and contact us with any questions you may have. Our contact information is at the bottom of this page.

We have also included our New Client form. Please fill this out and return to us as soon as possible with a copy (or scan) of the last three tax returns you filed, including federal and any provincial returns. This will allow us to get you set-up in our system and review your specific tax situation.

Our business has grown through referrals from satisfied clients like yourself. If you know of someone who may benefit from our services, please feel free to give them our contact info or a business card (we can always send you more). We assure you – we will take care of them with the same level of dedication and personalized attention that you are accustomed to receiving from us.

It was great talking with you and we are excited you have decided to allow us to serve your bookkeeping and profit strategy needs. Talk to you soon.

Sincerely,

Sam Kakembo
